A photograph of a Marriott Hotel building. The building is constructed of red brick and features a dark, gabled roof. The words "Marriott HOTEL" are mounted on the brick wall in white, with "Marriott" in a stylized script and "HOTEL" in a plain sans-serif font. To the left of the building, there are several tall, dark green evergreen trees. In the foreground, a paved road with double yellow lines curves around the corner of the building. A small white sign is visible on the brick wall near the entrance. The sky is overcast and grey.
